RE: Change of Ownership

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to the Tennessee Municipal Energy Authority Act (the "Act"), the City of Cleveland, Tennessee intends to transfer the assets and liabilities of Cleveland Utilities ("CU") to the Cleveland Utilities Authority ("CUA"), a governmental utility authority created by the City of Cleveland pursuant to the Act. The transfer will become effective upon the transfer of assets and assumption of liabilities of CU by CUA (the "Effective Time"). We currently expect the Effective Time to be October 31, 2023.

The ownership change from Cleveland Utilities to Cleveland Utilities Authority will affect the following permits:

- TN0024121 – Cleveland Utilities STP - NPDES Permit
- TNB024121 – Cleveland Utilities STP – Biosolids General SOP
- TN0004642 – Cleveland Utilities Drinking Water Treatment Plant - NPDES Permit
- IWT000007 – Cleveland Utilities - Inter-Basin Water Transfer Permit
- TNR058788 - Cleveland Utilities Wastewater TP - Tennessee Multi-Sector General NPDES Stormwater Permit – No Exposure Certification.

There will be no changes of the affected facilities with regards to:

- Contact Information
- Responsible Parties
- Authorized Signatories
- No modifications to the facilities or operations that will affect the limits and conditions of the permits.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact Mr. Steve Barger at 423-478-0698 or sbarger@clevelandutilities.com.

Sincerely,

Tim Henderson
President/CEO
